Share A Legend - Dragon's Milk Storytelling Event

Julia Backus jbackus@lambert.com

The Knickerbocker 417 Bridge St NW, Grand Rapids, MI 49504

Everyone has a legend worth sharing.

Legends are stories from our past. They are popularly regarded as historical, but not verifiable. They are remembered, shared, and passed down.

Share and hear legends that are best told over a Dragon's Milk stout. Public radio host – and Michigan native – Glynn Washington will tell some of his own legendary tales before turning over the open mic for Share A Legend storytellers.

Submit your legendary story or simply come to our FREE ticketed event by going to DragonsMilk.com
